The Slave of Duty

September 27-October 13

Stage Director: Meighan Lloyd

Music Director and Conductor: Guy Russo

Andrew Carnegie Free Library and Music Hall

300 Beechwood Avenue, Carnegie PA

From the Director:

Dear Patrons:

I am honored to be directing and choreographing this timeless G&S classic. Pirates was last seen on the Pittsburgh Savoyard stage in 1998. We will bring it to life again this fall!

Set in the ruins of a church and rocky seashore on the coast of Cornwall, England, Pirates embodies the G&S genre - featuring a delightful musical score and witty script. From the comedic pratfalls of the Police - a la "Keystone Cops", to the enchanting melody of Mabel's lament in "Poor Wandering One", Pirates is a delectable piece sure to entertain all ages.

So please, come and pour some sherry with the rousing Pirate King or chuckle at the buffoonery of the Major General. Pirates will incorporate many traditional aspects of a G&S production including a full orchestra under the magnificent direction of Guy Russo, as well as some new and exciting "non-traditional" twists, such as an acrobatic performing dance ensemble!

I look forward to seeing all of you in Carnegie!

When and Where?

September 27 - October 13, 2002

As is usual for the Savoyards, we will perform Friday and Saturday at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Andrew Carnegie Free Library Music Hall, located at 300 Beechwood Ave., Carnegie.

Directions:

From Pittsburgh: Follow the Outbound Fort Pitt Tunnel detour for 279 South towards the Airport. Take the Carnegie/Heidelberg exit and bear right at the fork (towards Carnegie). You should be on Mansfield Blvd. Go through the first light and make a left at the next light onto Broadway. Proceed through the first stop sign (E. Main St.) and bear right up the hill on Beechwood.

The Library will be on your right as you climb the hill. The Music Hall entrance is located around the corner from the Library entrance. There is parking around the library, and on Beechwood going up the hill.

Hey! Weren't you guys supposed to be in Homestead?!
The Andrew Carnegie Free Library and Music Hall is planning on doing major renovations. As is usual with many large projects, it's unclear when the Library will actually receive the funds to start. When they do, it's likely that we will have to temporarily relocate to another venue, and Homestead is one of our options. We thought that we might be there this season, but as it turns out, we were mistaken.
We love this Theatre, it's been our home for many years and although we've "grown accustomed to its face", we are also happy that it will be getting a much needed face-lift.
