PITTSBURGH SAVOYARDS PRESENT THE SORCERER

Magic is in the air when the Pittsburgh Savoyards present Gilbert & Sullivan's The Sorcerer, October 10th-12th and 16th-19th, as the first production of their 77th Season.

In the village of Ploverleigh, Alexis and the lovely Aline are to be formally engaged at their Betrothal Party. Believing that all the unattached villagers deserve to be as happy as they are, Alexis has secretly hired Family Sorcerer John Wellington Wells to make a "Love-at-First-Sight" potion to be distributed secretly to all at the celebration. But things seldom turn out as planned, and magical mayhem results! Can it be fixed? A hilarious tale of Romance, Chaos, and True Love in Gilbert & Sullivan style!

Performance dates are October 10, 11, 12 & 16, 17, 18, 19 2014 at the Andrew Carnegie Free Library Music Hall, 300 Beechwood Avenue in Carnegie, PA. Show-Times for The Sorcerer are 8:00 pm on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, 2:30 pm on Sundays. Tickets: $25 adult general admission; $21 Senior Citizens /Students; and $12 for preteens, and are available at the Box Office or On-Line for all performances. For more information please see webpage at www.pittsburghsavoyards.org or call 412-734-8476. A Opening Night Meet the Pittsburgh Savoyards Audience Reception will be held following the Oct 10 performance.
